I know a Cornwall Hero Ashley McCormick soon to be 22 years old. She just spent two years at St Lawrence College. She persevered through medical issues that caused her to be hospitalized at times. She is a 2020 grad who is following her dream. She is working at Open Hands taking care of disabled residents keeping them safe from Covid-19. She knew someone who lost everything in the recent fire on McConnell Ave. She talked to her landlord and made arrangements to let this person take over her place and she moved in with family. Not only did she give up her apartment she took only her personal things and donated the furniture and kitchen items dishes etc. as this person lost everything in the fire. This person had no place to go. She is my hero!
